Marriott Golf to assume management of Cottonwood

Florida-based Marriott Golf announced recently it would assume management of the new Cottonwood Hills Golf Club, near East 4th and Buhler Road.

Marriott will oversee "all aspects of the club operation, including golf course maintenance, instructional programs, food and beverage services and overall golf programming," a press release stated.

Cottonwood Hills Golf Club will be the "centerpiece," the release said, of the 582-acre planned community.

The first nine holes of the public course will be unveiled in spring 2006. The entire 18-hole course will be open in June. The first residents are expected to move into Cottonwood Hills during the summer of 2006.

Marriott Golf manages 60 golf courses, including Camelback Golf Club in Arizona and the Royal St. Kitts Golf Club in the West Indies. According to its Web site, www.marriottgolf.com, Cottonwood Hills would be the only Marriott Golf-managed site in Kansas.
